

We are at the Chateau Fairmont.

Users rate locations based on ease of entry, state of the property, unique finds and how long since the property has been active. Some users choose to leave reviews that include personal experiences in locations and hints to scavenger hunts and treasures left hidden for other users to seek and find.

Meet us by the silos at 7:00 pm. Dress lightly and bring a flashlight, it will get dark quickly.

Okay! Passing the guard shack now.

Hope you wore comfortable shoes, we are climbing.

GO VACANCY.

DEVER STATE SCHOOL
Taunton, Massachusetts ★★★★★

Formerly known as the Myles Standish school for the Mentally Retarded. Now known as the Paul A. Dever State School, it was used as a school for the mentally disabled in 1959. After arsonists set House #32 on fire, security has frequented the grounds of all 15 buildings. Don't bother paying a visit, all buildings were demolished in 2016 to be turned into property used by the state as an addition to the state forest.

Demolished in 2016.

GO VACANCY.

enter Country, State, or Zip

Enjoy our full detail pages of all marked locations including user ratings, all known historical usage of the property, status of the building's condition and photo galleries. We have researched easiest access points for you so minimal planning is involved leaving you maximum time to explore.